Dean, Faculty of Veterinary Science

2 March 2010

Dear Fellow Alumni,

An invitation to a very special occasion: A Night to Remember! is enclosed. You are invited to our Centenary Dinner for “the School at the foot of the hill” to be held on Saturday 1 May 2010 in the MacLaurin Hall at the University of Sydney. This evening will be an opportunity to reconnect with fellow alumni, friends and faculty staff to remember the good times and celebrate One Hundred Years of achievement for the Faculty of Veterinary Science. We have reached this milestone through the extraordinary sustained efforts of alumni, staff, veterinary organisations and the Australian community.

You will also find an invitation to “Back to the Roundhouse”, an event planned for Sunday 2 May. This will be a great opportunity to revisit the Veterinary Science precinct with your partner and family and socialise in a more informal setting.

Places at the dinner are limited by the special venue and will be allocated in order of receipt of bookings, so I urge you to send your RSVP without delay. If you are unable to join us at the dinner, I encourage you to come along to the “Back to the Roundhouse” gathering or other celebratory events and activities that will take place during 2010.

The full program for the Centenary is available on the Veterinary Science Foundation website www.sydney.edu.au/vetscience/Foundation

I look forward to celebrating our Centenary with you.

With kind regards

Rosanne Taylor
