Criteria for Admission to the AVBS or BVSC degrees under the Faculty of Veterinary Science Rural Students Entry Scheme

Current NSW HSC or interstate equivalent applicants may be offered a place under the Faculty of Veterinary Science Rural Students Entry Scheme if they meet all the criteria set out below (note: there is a quota for entry under this admission category).

1. The applicant's ATAR/UAI is not more than five (5) points below the UAC main round cut off mark for the year of entry
2. Applicants must have completed at least the last four (4) years of secondary education at a rural school (the definition of "rural" is detailed below)
3. Applicants must have had a permanent home address in a rural area for a significant period (at least four (4) years) at any time prior to their application (the definition of "rural" is detailed below)
4. Applicants must be able to demonstrate a commitment to a career in a rural setting. (This may include an exceptional record of involvement and achievement in community affairs at school or local community level in a rural environment).
5. Applicants are not eligible for a place under this Scheme if they have completed one or more full-time years (or part-time equivalent) of tertiary study (tertiary study refers to Diploma, Advanced Diploma, Bachelor's Degree or higher qualification recognised by the University of Sydney).
6. Applicants are not eligible for a place under this Scheme if they accept an offer under any other Access and Equity Program offered by the University.
7. Applicants for the Bachelor of Veterinary Science ONLY must also satisfy the Multiple Choice Special Tertiary Admissions Test (STAT) criterion and submit a Commitment to Veterinary Science Form.
8. ALL applicants for the Rural Students Entry Scheme must also lodge an application with the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) to be considered for admission (please see the UAC website for further information).

Definition of "rural"

The basis for the definition of "rural" will be the area encompassing the rural NSW Health Service regions, as announced by the NSW Department of Health on 16 March 1966, or the equivalent definition of rural applicable to other Australian States and Territories. Basically, all of New South Wales is considered rural with the exception of Sydney, the Central Coast, Newcastle, Wollongong, the Blue Mountains and their surrounding areas. In other states, similar definitions will apply.
