ENROLMENTS

In order to qualify, a student must have been prevented from sitting for the examination by serious illness or misadventure occurring within one week of the examination. A statutory declaration and specific medical certificate must be lodged with the Law Extension Committee, if possible prior to the examination but no later than 14 days after the examination. Upon the student passing that examination in the next session, and notifying the Law Extension Committee, the Law Extension Committee and the Board will consider a partial refund of the fees for that session.

The criteria are quite strict – for example, a student must have been eligible (not deemed eligible) to sit for the examination they missed; and at the next session must have achieved a pass in the compulsory assignment and the examination. It is advisable to discuss an application with the Law Extension Committee or the Board's Legal Officer.

WORKLOAD

Prior to enrolling, you should give careful consideration to the work associated with your proposed course of study, including attendance at lectures and preparation of assignments. The amount of study time you need to allocate to each subject is difficult to estimate, but in very general terms you should anticipate at least three hours of study for each hour of teaching time. Additional time is required for assignment preparation. You should consider employment and family commitments, and health factors which might adversely affect your capacity to undertake the intended study program.

It is also important for financial reasons that you carefully assess your capacity to undertake your chosen workload, as a student who withdraws from a subject after enrolment is not entitled to a refund of fees, nor to have fees transferred to a later session.

If you are a new student, you should note that a standard workload for the first two years is two subjects per session. Many students, especially those taking the course part time or without a strong background in tertiary level studies, would be better advised to begin with one subject.

On the other hand, students with a successful background in tertiary education, and not in full-time employment, may apply to accelerate their progression by taking three or even more subjects (see pages 12-13).

Students should take note of the examination timetable on page 45 and choose their subjects carefully to avoid enrolling for two exams in the same exam session or more than two exams scheduled in the same day. If a student has no other option than to enrol in subjects that are scheduled for examination in the same session on the same day, the student must contact the LPAB’s Examination Officer no later than 5 August 2011 to request appropriate special accommodations.

ENROLMENT PERIOD

The enrolment period for the Winter 2011 Session will be between 9.00am Thursday 21 April and 5.00PM Wednesday 4 May, both dates inclusive.

LATE ENROLMENT

If you have made an application to the Examinations Committee for relaxation of the progression or exclusion rules, you should register online with the LEC Webcampus, attend lectures and prepare compulsory assignments but you may not attempt to enrol in any subject before your application has been determined. The Committee will, if necessary, extend the enrolment period when communicating the result of your application to you. Other than this:

(a) an application for enrolment which reaches the Legal Profession Admission Board’s office later than 5.00pm Wednesday 4 May but no later than 5.00pm Friday 6 May will be processed, but only upon payment of a late fee of $60.00 in addition to other fees payable; and

(b) applications which reach the Board’s office later than 5.00pm Friday 6 May will not be processed.

ENROLMENT FEES

The enrolment fees payable in respect of each subject consist of:

- a tuition fee, which has been set for the Winter 2011 Session at $458.00 and;
- an examination fee of $150.00 per subject.

The combined tuition and examination fees are $608.00 per subject.

The Board collects all enrolment fees including the tuition fee on behalf of the Law Extension Committee.
Payment must be made in full at the time of enrolment. Unfortunately part payments cannot be made. An enrolment will be cancelled where a cheque is not met upon presentation. A re-enrolment following the dishonour of a cheque will incur a dishonour fee of $35.00. If the re-enrolment is received after the normal enrolment deadline the late fee is also payable.

If paying by credit card it is the student’s responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient funds available. Enrolment applications are processed in bulk therefore applications can take 3 to 4 weeks to process. Third party credit card payments will not be processed without the written consent of the card holder. A late fee will be incurred if an enrolment is unable to be processed until after the normal enrolment deadline due to an invalid credit card payment and a dishonour fee may also be applied.

You should note that a student who withdraws from a subject, or who fails to sit for the examination in a subject, is not entitled to a refund of fees, nor to have fees transferred to a later session.

POST ENROLMENT CONFIRMATION

Your enrolment application can take a number of weeks to process. Please do not call the office to enquire if it has been received/processed. If there is a problem with your application, we will contact you.

A letter confirming your enrolment, examination details and a receipt of your fees will be posted to you as soon as practicable after your application for enrolment has been received and processed by the Board. Please note this will be the only written confirmation of your exam details the Board will send to you. If you have not received the letter within 28 days of the last day of enrolment, you should contact the Board’s Student Services Officer (telephone (02) 9338 3505) to confirm that your enrolment has been received and processed.

The change can be notified by fax to (02) 9338 3555, mail to GPO Box 3980 Sydney 2001, or email at ag_lpab@agd.nsw.gov.au. In addition, update your details with the Law Extension Committee on the Webcampus (see page 26) and the Campus Card Centre (see page 36).

DISCIPLINE

Cheating in the Board’s examinations or the Law Extension Committee’s home assignments occurs from time to time and leads to a great deal of distress for all concerned. A Student-at-Law must ensure that any examination or assignment work which he or she submits as his or her own, really is his or her own, and has not been created, wholly or in part, through the use of an unauthorised aid or someone else’s work.

The Examinations Committee and the Law Extension Committee are required by Rule 82 of the Legal Profession Admission Rules to be vigilant to detect any cases of cheating in examinations or home assignments. The comments of the Law Extension Committee on this subject are on pages 39 and 40.

If a teacher or other officer of the Law Extension Committee alleges that plagiarism has occurred in an assignment, or an examiner or other officer of the Board alleges that there has been cheating in an examination, the Board’s Executive Officer usually puts the allegation to the Student-at-Law, asking him or her to show cause why he or she should not be dealt with under Rule 84.

The ensuing formal procedures, set out in Rules 84 and 85 of the Legal Profession Admission Rules, can involve a formal hearing before a Hearing Committee, a reprimand, refusal of admission to examinations for a specified period, or cancellation of registration as a Student-at-Law. Records of disciplinary proceedings and findings against a Student-at-Law become part of that student’s official record and may be kept by the Board for over 70 years.

One of the most fundamental qualities of a lawyer is honesty. The Board takes cheating so seriously because it shows a lack of this most fundamental quality. Unless the Board is satisfied that a person is honest, the Board must refuse that person’s application for admission to the legal profession. In 2004 the Board did refuse to approve the admission of a university law graduate found guilty of several instances of plagiarism.

In December 2007 an Australian lawyer was struck off the roll for failing to disclose a plagiarism offence at the time of admission.

The Board’s disciplinary provisions may be employed in relation to other forms of misconduct but, in recent times, there have been more allegations of cheating than any other form of misconduct.
REFUND POLICY

The Board does not refund application or enrolment fees.

Students should note it is important for financial reasons that you carefully assess your capacity to undertake your chosen workload, as a student who withdraws from a subject after enrolment, or is ineligible to sit, or fails to sit an examination in a subject is not entitled to a refund of fees, nor to have fees transferred to a later session.

Fees payable on application are not refundable if an application is unsuccessful or requisitioned.

TIMELY & ACCURATE ENROLMENT INCENTIVE DRAW!

To encourage accurate and timely enrolment all correct enrolments received on either the first, second or third day of the enrolment period, regardless of the method of lodgement, will be eligible for the draw. Six applications will be drawn at random and will be checked for completeness and validity.

The winning students will receive a waiver of 50% of the Board’s Examination Fees ($75 per subject). If an incomplete or invalid enrolment is drawn, the waiver will not apply and another application will be drawn.

In order to qualify to win one of the waivers:

• the enrolment must be received in the Board’s office by 5pm on either the first, second or third day of the enrolment period;
• the enrolment form must be clearly legible;
• all required information on the enrolment form must be provided;
• the bank cheque, solicitors cheque, money order or credit card payment form must be for tuition fees and examination fees only and must be for the correct amount (third party credit card payments must be accompanied by the written authorisation of the credit card holder);
• the Student-at-Law must not be excluded or pending exclusion, whether or not he or she has been informed of the exclusion;
• the Student-at-Law must not have an application for relaxation of the progression rules pending;
• the enrolment must be for the correct number of subjects and for subjects in the correct order, as per the progression rules.

Please note that you will not be eligible to win if you are excluded or making a student course application. As usual in such cases, you have to wait until your Rule 67 application or your student course application is determined before you can enrol.

Those students who win a waiver will be advised in writing, and receive a cheque from the Board for the waiver after the bulk of the enrolment applications have been processed.
