LIBRARY ASSISTANCE
Guides to the Law Library can be obtained from:
• Library Information Desk
• Law Library’s website:
  sydney.edu.au/library/libraries/law

CONTACTS
The Information Desk telephone number is (02) 9351 0216.
The LPAB Liaison Librarian is Patrick O’Mara. His telephone number is (02) 9351 0293.

LIBRARY CARDS
A combined student ID/library card will be sent to you soon after you first enrol and should be kept. It will be revalidated at the beginning of each session in which you are enrolled.

Your Library card gives you full access to Library services and borrowing privileges at all University of Sydney Libraries. You should always have your Library card with you when you are using the Library. The Library card is non-transferable, and must be presented when borrowing.

Your Library card also serves as your student card, for identification at examinations.

Lost Cards: A replacement card can be issued at the Campus Card Centre on Camperdown campus on receipt of a replacement fee.

For further information phone (02) 9351 2423 or visit the Campus Card Centre website at sydney.edu.au/card_centre

The study of law is useful in a variety of points of view. It qualifies a man to be useful to himself, his neighbours, and to the public.

CHANGES TO PERSONAL DETAILS

Any changes to personal details, including address, contact details and email address should be given directly and separately to each of the following:

- Legal Profession Admission Board
- Law Extension Committee
- Campus Card Centre (see contact details above)

As emailed reminder notices are provided by the Library as a courtesy service to students prior to borrowed items being due for return, it is essential that the correct email address is provided to the Campus Card Centre.

Borrower records can be accessed online for information including personal information, date due of borrowed items and fines at: sydney.edu.au/library/mylibrary

BOOK COLLECTIONS

Books are available for loan in the Law Library as follows:

Law Short Loan collection.

This collection contains multiple copies of popular texts. Loans are for one week and cannot be renewed. Books on loan from this collection cannot be reserved.

Law Research collection.

Loans are for 8 weeks with unlimited renewals if nobody has requested the item. If the item is requested by another borrower while out on loan, it will be recalled and the due date will change. You will be notified by email if an item is recalled, advising of the new due date. Fines apply if items are not returned by the new due date.

Law Reserve collection.

Loans for these high demand materials are for two hours.

LOANS

Overdue books will attract fines. You will not be permitted to borrow if books are overdue or if fines exceed $25. Lost books will attract a replacement fee.

Borrowers can check the date their loans are due back, renew Law Research books and pay fines at MyLibrary: sydney.edu.au/library/mylibrary

Emailed reminder notices are provided by the Library as a courtesy service. Thus it is important to give the Campus Card Centre your correct and current email address.

Hard copy law reports, legislation, loose-leaf services and journals cannot be borrowed but many of these materials are also available online. See Online Legal Resources below for details.

Self-Check out

Most Library items can now be borrowed from the self-check counter, which issues a ‘date due’ slip. Items may also be borrowed from the Law Library Information Desk.

CAN'T GET TO THE LAW LIBRARY?

ULA - University Library Australia - an Australia-wide borrowing scheme

If you live too far away or simply are unable to come into the city, as borrowers of the University of Sydney you are eligible for the ULA Borrowing Scheme. This scheme allows students of Sydney University including Diploma in Law students to borrow from another University Library that is closer to you.

How to apply

Applications are made directly to the library from which you wish to borrow. Students of the University of Sydney are required to pay a $50 fee to the host library, where photo identification and proof of current enrolment is required.

For more information contact the university library from which you are planning to borrow, or ring the Law Library on (02) 9351 0216 or refer to: sydney.edu.au/borrowing/cards.html#ula

Extended loan periods for Distance/Country students

External students living beyond an area bounded by Faulconbridge, Wollongong, Lisarow, Picton and Richmond train stations may request a two week loan for books borrowed in person from the law short loan collection. Requests must be made at the time of borrowing.
Distance/Country book request service

External students as defined above may ask for books to be sent by post or via the Document Exchange. An extended borrowing period to allow for receipt and return of books is included. Please note that fines will accumulate if books are returned late, and lost books will attract a replacement fee. Please phone on (02) 9351 0302 for details. Requests can be sent via:

- web request form at: sydney.edu.au/libraries/law/lpab.html#reqforms
- e-mail to law.library@sydney.edu.au
- fax on (02) 9351 0301

Distance/Country document request service

Cases, articles and book chapters required for private study that are not available online can also be sent to distance/country students. Documents are sent via email or alternative method if preferred. This service is subject to copyright restrictions.

Request forms including a copyright declaration are available from the Law Library website at: sydney.edu.au/libraries/law/lpab.html#reqforms or by phoning (02) 9351 0302.

LPAB PAST EXAMINATION PAPERS

The Board’s Examinations Committee has determined that only examination papers from the last three sessions will be accessible via the LPAB’s website at: www.agd.nsw.gov.au/lawlink/lpab/ll_lpab.nsf/pages/lpab_pastexampapers

The reason for this is that earlier papers could be misleading if relied upon as reflecting the current curriculum.

ONLINE LEGAL RESOURCES

Students have access to a wide range of online databases and other web resources including full-text cases and journal articles. These databases can be accessed both on and off campus by students who are currently enrolled in the Diploma in Law.

Law Library homepage: sydney.edu.au/libraries/law/

Library's LPAB Students page: sydney.edu.au/libraries/law/lpab.html

ACCESSING ONLINE DATABASES FROM OFF-CAMPUS

Off-campus access to most databases can be obtained by typing in your Unikey login and password when prompted.

Unikeys can be obtained from: sydney.edu.au/extro/LEC/lecreg.cgi or simply follow the links from the LEC Webcampus.

A small number of databases are accessible via password only. Passwords can be obtained, when prompted at the listing for these databases on the Law Databases page, via Unikey login and password.

Supplementary Materials

Many courses have supplementary materials that are available via the Library’s website. Currently to access these materials, either go to the Course Materials section of the Law Extension Committee Webcampus OR go to: sydney.edu.au/libraries/law/lpab.html#LibResources

Note that if you are off-campus you will be prompted for your Unikey in order to gain access to individual resources.

If you have any queries about or difficulties accessing library databases, please contact the Law Library on (02) 9351 0216 or email your enquiry to law.library@sydney.edu.au. Alternatively, you can contact Patrick O’Mara, the LPAB Librarian, directly on (02) 9351 0293 or at patrick.omara@sydney.edu.au.

LEGAL RESEARCH TRAINING

Introductory online guides: sydney.edu.au/libraries/law/lpab.html#researchguides

Basic Legal Research Texts:

Law Library legal research hands-on classes and tours for Diploma in Law students

- Library tours - 30 minute tour of the Law Library and facilities available.
- Finding cases - covers finding Australian and English cases in full text in a variety of online databases and how to find additional information about cases.
- Finding legislation - looks at finding and researching legislation, both online and in hard copy format.
- Finding books, journal articles and other secondary sources - covers searching databases to retrieve journal articles, books and other material on a particular case or topic.
- All in one legal research class - This 3 hour class (9.30-12.30 pm or 1.30-4.30pm) held on Saturdays (as well as a Friday afternoon class to coincide with Weekend School 1) is a condensed version of the above classes to make attendance easier for students who are unable to get to individual sessions.

All classes are held in the University of Sydney Freehills Law Library Computer Training Rooms.

Bookings are required for ALL classes EXCEPT the Library tours. The one hour lunchtime and evening sessions will proceed subject to sufficient bookings. Places at the three hour ‘All in One’ classes tend to fill up fast so book early to avoid disappointment.

To make a booking contact Patrick O’Mara, LPAB Liaison Librarian - email: patrick.omara@sydney.edu.au or phone (02) 9351 0293.

If demand is sufficient, extra classes may be scheduled.

Individual legal research consultations are also available. Please contact Patrick O’Mara, LPAB Liaison Librarian (email patrick.omara@sydney.edu.au or phone (02) 9351 0293) to make an appointment.
