LENDLEASE BRADFIELD URBANISATION SCHOLARSHIP

Terms and Conditions

The Lendlease Bradfield Urbanisation Scholarship recognises and honours the work of John Bradfield. It aims to encourage academic excellence and creativity in first and second year undergraduate students in studies related to urbanism.

1. Eligibility
   a) The scholarship is open to Australian citizens or permanent residents of Australia and/or international students enrolled at the University of Sydney, at the time of application, undertaking first year or second year undergraduate degree studies with a Weighted Average Mark at or above distinction (75%) level.
   b) Student must be an enrolled in an undergraduate degree in one of the following faculties: Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, University of Sydney Business School, Faculty of Architecture, Design and Planning, and Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies, and be studying disciplines related to urbanism including, without limitation, urban development, urban planning, urban design, project finance, project/facilities management or engineering.

2. Selection Criteria
   a) The scholarship will be awarded on the recommendation of the selection panel.
   b) Applicants will be assessed based on selection criteria determined by the University at the time of application.
   c) In acknowledgment of the Donor’s interest in promoting gender equality in the disciplines supported by the scholarships, the University will endeavour to award no less than 50% of the scholarships in each ten year period to female scholarship applicants.

3. Tenure
   a) A scholarship will be awarded, depending on funding, in the following year.
   b) The scholarship recipient will be known as a “Lendlease Bradfield Urbanisation Scholar”.
   c) The scholarship value is $10,000 per annum.
   d) The scholarship is tenable for duration of the recipient’s degree, including appending honours if applicable.
   e) The scholarship is not transferable to another degree program or another University.

4. Continuing requirements
   a) The Scholar must maintain a weighted average mark of 75.
   b) The Scholar shall immediately notify the Faculty Student Administration Office of any change in personal circumstances, including changes of home and term addresses.
   c) The Scholar must be enrolled full-time in studies related to urbanism in the faculties outlined under (1) Eligibility during the tenure of their scholarship.
   d) The Scholar will provide a one-page report annually to the University to provide updates and address impact of the scholarship. The report will be available to donor.
   e) With the Scholar’s consent, material from the report may be available for publication.
f) The Scholar will become an ambassador for the Lendlease Bradfield Urbanisation Scholarship.

g) Requests to hold the scholarship part-time must be submitted in writing to the Fees and Scholarships Office and will only be approved in exceptional circumstances such as a disability, medical condition or carer commitment which limits the student’s capacity to undertake full-time study.

h) The Scholar will comply with all rules, regulations, by-laws, resolutions and other requirements made by the University with respect to both enrolment and attendance at the University.

5. Value and Payment
   a) The value of the scholarship is $10,000 per annum, for the duration of the Scholar’s degree, subject to the Scholar continuing to satisfy the requirements of the scholarship as per section 5.
   b) The scholarship payment will be paid in two equal instalments after the census date in each Semester. The payment will be administered by the Fees and Scholarships Office.
   c) Part-time payments will be half the normal amount of the Scholarship.

6. Termination
   The scholarship will be terminated if the Scholar:
   a) accepts another scholarship of equal or higher value; or
   b) fails to maintain a weighted average mark of 75; or
   c) withdraws or transfers from their current degree and commences study in a program that is not eligible under this scholarship.

Once the scholarship is terminated, it will not be reinstated. If the scholarship is withdrawn or terminated for any reason, the Scholar will, without any demand by the University, repay that part of the scholarship received after the date of withdrawal or termination of the scholarship.
