

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

16th University of Sydney TESOL Research Colloquium

In conjunction with the Centre for English Teaching (CET), The University of Sydney

A Free Colloquium

Saturday 21 September 2024

(9.00 am to 4.00 pm)

Venue: University of Sydney

CALL FOR PAPERS

We are delighted to announce the 2024 University of Sydney TESOL Research Colloquium. The Colloquium provides a forum in which TESOL research is shared. It provides a space for established and new TESOL researchers to develop relationships and collaborations. It also aims to bring together researchers, English language teachers, and postgraduate students as members of the TESOL community.

Keynote Speakers:

- Margaret Kettle, Central Queensland University, Research Directions in TESOL: Deciding context, methodology, and contribution
- Mark Fraser, University of Wollongong, Making the Connections: A Teacher Educator's Perspective on Compatibility of English Language Teaching Methods

Abstracts are invited for:

- 25-minute paper presentations (20 minutes for presentation followed by 5 minutes for questions/discussion)

Instructions for submissions:

- Abstracts: A title and a 250-word abstract (plus your name, institution, email, and telephone).
- Submission deadline: Friday, 2 August 2024, 11.59 pm. Late submissions will not be accepted.
- Notifications on accepting papers: Monday, 19 August 2024.
- Abstract submission: TESOL Research Colloquium 2024 abstract submission

Criteria for Proposal Selection

- Relevance: The topic of the proposal is relevant to the area of TESOL.
- Methodology: The proposal adopts a methodology appropriate to the research question/s and context.
- Significance: The proposal contributes to theory or practice in TESOL.
- Clarity: The proposal is well-presented and organised.

Inquiries: Aek Phakiti (aek.phakiti@sydney.edu.au).