

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

A Veterinary Clinical Residency Position in Dermatology is currently available at the University Veterinary Teaching Hospital Sydney

The Sydney School of Veterinary Science currently has a vacancy in a specialty residency program in Dermatology, commencing in July 2019.

This three-year, full-time program will enable a successful applicant to fulfil the credentialing requirements for specialisation for specialist examination by the Australian and New Zealand College of Veterinary Scientists and/or relevant overseas colleges. The residency is directly supervised by a board-certified specialist. This program requires completion of concurrent Masters degrees in coursework and research. A tax free stipend of $43,000 pa is available for the most outstanding applicant.

The closing date for applications is Friday 19 April 2019. Interviews will occur shortly afterwards.

Applications are restricted to veterinarians with a degree registerable in New South Wales. Candidates must have an Honours degree or equivalent as well as Australian citizenship or Australian permanent residency.

Applicants must have completed a rotating internship or have equivalent clinical experience in practice.
