

University of Sydney Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Accommodation Award
Duration:	One year only
Value:	$7,728 paid directly to resident's rent at University Owned Accommodation to reduce weekly rental payments. The award is not redeemable as a cash payment.
No. available:	Varies from year to year depending on funding.
Conditions of the scholarship:	Be resident of Queen Mary or International House . Spaces in Camden, Cumberland, Camperdown terraces, Darlington House and Yannadah are subject to availability
Eligibility Criteria	Open to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Commencing 'School Leaver' Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Students - Must be a full-time student. Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will only be approved under exceptional circumstances. Such requests must be approved by Student Accommodation Services
Application Process	No application required. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Students, meeting the above eligibility criteria, offered admission into The University of Sydney, will be eligible for award and guaranteed accommodation. Eligible students will be contacted by Student Accommodation Services, from the week commencing 9 January 2017, to nominate their preference for accommodation. Offers of accommodation and scholarship will be sent to nominated emails.
Additional Benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - No application fee - Bond waived - Start-up bursary valued at $1000 - Catered and Self-catered options available - Queen Mary Building will have a dedicated wing to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Students