International students in New Zealand (including permanent residents of New Zealand)

Are you ready to join us?

Below are the steps to help international students in New Zealand apply to undergraduate study at the University of Sydney.

1	<input type="checkbox"/> Find a Course	Research the courses available at the University of Sydney by visiting: sydney.edu.au/courses You may also like to visit us for a campus tour, or attend major events such as Open Day or other events both in and outside Australia: sydney.edu.au/open_day and sydney.edu.au/international-open-days
2	<input type="checkbox"/> Check entry requirements	Find out about undergraduate entry requirements – sydney.edu.au/ug-entry Make note of the entry requirements relating to your course, including our fixed ATARs to guarantee admission to most courses – sydney.edu.au/sydney-atar Some courses have specific additional selection criteria, assumed knowledge and/or prerequisites, check the course website: sydney.edu.au/courses For students completing the New Zealand Certificate of Educational Achievement (NCEA) Level 3 , an Interstate Transfer Index (ITI) will be calculated by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA). For more information, visit: uac.edu.au/international/admission/secondary.shtml and nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/awards/university-entrance/entrance-to-australian-universities . You can meet the University’s English language proficiency requirements by completing an accepted senior secondary qualification in New Zealand. More information can be found at: sydney.edu.au/ug-int-english
3	<input type="checkbox"/> Find out ‘How to Apply’	– If you are an international student in New Zealand studying any qualification, including the NCEA, International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma and GCE A Levels, you apply directly to the University via the University’s Find a Course website. sydney.edu.au/courses , search for your course, then click on the “Apply” button on the course page.
4	<input type="checkbox"/> See what scholarships are available	There are various scholarships on offer. Visit the scholarships website for more information: sydney.edu.au/scholarships/prospective/international_students.shtml
5	<input type="checkbox"/> Check out the accommodation options	Explore the accommodation options by visiting our student accommodation website: sydney.edu.au/accommodation
6	<input type="checkbox"/> Apply and receive an offer	Check important application dates and deadlines on sydney.edu.au/courses and apply well in advance for your preferred course. If you receive a conditional offer , you may need to satisfy certain criteria such as academic and English language conditions before you can be issued with an unconditional offer . If you receive an unconditional offer, your next step is to accept your offer
7	<input type="checkbox"/> Accept your Offer and pay your fees	To accept your unconditional offer log onto the Sydney Student Portal – sydneystudent.sydney.edu.au/sitsvision/wrd/siw_lgn . Once you confirm your place at the University of Sydney, you must pay your fees, which includes the semester tuition fee and overseas students health cover (OSHC). You will then receive an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE), which can be used to apply for your student visa. For more information visit: sydney.edu.au/ug-int-accept .
