Interstate domestic students

Are you ready to join us?

Below are the steps to help interstate domestic students apply for undergraduate study at the University of Sydney.

1	<input type="checkbox"/> Research	Research the courses available at the University of Sydney by visiting: sydney.edu.au/courses You may also like to visit us for a campus tour, or attend major events such as Open Day in August. For more information, visit: sydney.edu.au/open_day
2	<input type="checkbox"/> Check entry requirements	Find out about undergraduate entry requirements - sydney.edu.au/ug-entry Make note of the entry requirements relating to your course, including our fixed ATARs to guarantee admission to most courses - sydney.edu.au/sydney-atar Some courses have specific additional selection criteria, assumed knowledge and/or prerequisites. Note: From 2019, some courses will have a mathematics prerequisite for students completing a senior secondary (year 12) qualification in Australia. For more information, including equivalent interstate mathematics subject and grade requirements, visit - sydney.edu.au/study/maths Find out about equivalent interstate qualifications and subjects at uac.edu.au/undergraduate/admission/interstate.shtml .
3	<input type="checkbox"/> Find out 'How to Apply'	To apply for a Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP), you will apply through the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC)* and follow the prompts through: uac.edu.au . Refer to the UAC website for key dates. All domestic applicants are eligible for CSPs. Your application will be considered on the basis of your year 12 or equivalent school leaving qualification. *If you are applying for a Sciences Po dual degree you must apply directly to the University even if you are applying through UAC for other courses. You can do so via the University's Find a Course website. sydney.edu.au/courses , search for your course, then click on the 'Apply' button on the course page.
4	<input type="checkbox"/> Explore entry options	If you are unsure if you will get the ATAR needed for your preferred course, check your eligibility for the admission pathways we offer: sydney.edu.au/access
5	<input type="checkbox"/> See what scholarships are available	We award many scholarships each year. Check the Scholarships website for more information: sydney.edu.au/scholarships
6	<input type="checkbox"/> Check out the accommodation options	Explore the accommodation options by visiting our student accommodation website: sydney.edu.au/accommodation
7	<input type="checkbox"/> Apply through UAC	Make sure you are aware of important dates and deadlines: uac.edu.au/undergraduate/key-dates.shtml . Once you have chosen the degree, submit your application via UAC. You can find out the UAC code for the degree of your choice on the UAC website or the UAC Guide or our course website: sydney.edu.au/courses .
8	<input type="checkbox"/> Accept your offer	Once you receive an offer from the University of Sydney via UAC you will be sent more information on how to accept or defer your place. You will also receive additional information on orientation, enrolment and important dates. sydney.edu.au/start
