

Prize Giving Ceremony

The University of Sydney Law School

Tuesday 31 May 2022

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

Ngyni ngalawangun, mari budjari Gadinurada
We meet together on the very beautiful Gadi Country

Prize giving is a celebration of student excellence, but it is so much more than an expression of individual merit deserving recognition from the School.

Prizes and awards serve to inspire others to strive for excellence. It also is an opportunity for the wider School, students and staff, to share in the celebration of our students' achievement.

Teachers take great pride in their students' successes, whether prizes are awarded or not. Awards at prize giving also speak to our wider alumni, donors and stakeholders in the profession, which through their ongoing generosity demonstrate support for our commitment to celebrating and inspiring excellence in the study of law.

The School is especially excited to celebrate these achievements in person, noting the significant challenges that the pandemic has presented for both students and staff in recent years.

The Winner of the Award for Teaching Excellence (Early Career)

Dr Gemma Turton

The Winner of the Award for Teaching Excellence

This year, Sydney Law School was thrilled to unveil an Indigenous public artwork on its building facade created by artist, Michael Jalaru Torres.

A significant landmark on The University's campus, the artwork shares Sydney's story and is an important acknowledgement of the history and culture of Indigenous peoples that recognises and celebrates our connection to Country.
