

Bio of Prof. Chen Jingying

Professor Chen Jingying is the Vice President of East China University of Political Science and Law (ECUPL), overseeing undergraduate education, international affairs, continuing education, library development, and training programs of ECUPL. Professor Chen is the 12th and 13th National People's Congress Deputy, member of the Shanghai Administrative Reconsideration Committee, expert of the Shanghai Judges and Prosecutors Selection Committee, and member of the Shanghai Academic Degree Evaluation Committee. She also serves as the Executive Director of the China Society of Private International Law, Chinese Society of International Economic Law, and Shanghai Law Society. With expertise in International Economic Law, International Trade Law and Maritime Law, she has published many articles, theses and books in the fields.