

New directions in financial crime

Program

Friday 29 November 2024

Location: Sydney Law School, New Law Building (F10), Eastern Avenue, Camperdown

8.30 – 9am	Registration
9 – 9.15am	Welcome
9.15 – 11.15am	Panel 1
	Corporate Financial Crime and Euphemism Penny Crofts, University of Technology Sydney
	Corporate Criminal Liability Reforms     Radha Ivory, University of Queensland
	Productive Partners v ACCC: Revolution in Corporate Criminal Liability or Another False Start?  Jonathan Clough, Monash University
	Legal Professional Privilege and Corporate Liability     Liz Campbell, Monash University
	Personal Liability of Directors     Doron Goldbarsht, Macquarie University
11.15 – 11.30am	Coffee break
11.30am – 1.30pm	Panel 2
	AML and Lawyers     Olivia Dixon, University of Sydney
	Lawyers and Tranche 2     David Chaikin, University of Sydney
	AML Developments     Anton Moiseienko, Australian National University
	AML Reflections from the UK     Katie Benson, University of Manchester
	Regulatory Challenges for Trade-Based Money Laundering     Jamie Ferrill, Charles Sturt University
1.30 – 2.15pm	Lunch

2.15 – 4pm	<ul> <li>Panel 3</li> <li>How the FATF Bites Mitali Tyagi, APG</li> <li>FATF MERs and Developing Countries Yane Svetiev, University of Sydney</li> <li>Risk and the FATF's Risk-Based Approach Louis de Koker, La Trobe University</li> <li>The Risk-Based Approach (Cayman Islands developments) Derwent Coshott, University of Sydney</li> </ul>
4 – 4.15pm	Coffee break
4 - 4.45pm	<ul> <li>Panel 4</li> <li>Are proceeds of crime orders swift, certain and severe: a case study Megan Styles, Monash University</li> <li>The Forest-Finance Nexus: Addressing the Connection between Forest Crime and Financial Crime Hannah Harris, Macquarie University</li> <li>Foreign Bribery Susanna Ford, Arnold Bloch Leibler</li> <li>Criminal Law and Technology: The Complex Case of Non-Fungible Tokens (NFTs) Saskia Hufnagel &amp; Colin King, University of Sydney</li> </ul>