

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

Sir Arthur Thomas George

Sir Arthur George and Sir William Tyree were made the first Honorary Fellows of the University at Graduation Ceremonies in the Great Hall on Saturday, 20 April 1985. The awards were established to honour those who have conspicuously and continually supported the welfare and interests of the University.

The Vice-Chancellor Professor John Ward made the presentation and the title was awarded by the Chancellor Sir Hermann Black.

The Chancellor, Sir Hermann Black (right) presenting the testamur to Sir Arthur George, photo, 'The University of Sydney Annual Report 1985'.