

SUPPLEMENTARY ACADEMIC SUPPORT (SAS)

RULES & GUIDELINES

Australia Awards are prestigious scholarships offered by the Australian Government to the next generation of global leaders for development. Australia Awards Scholarship (AAS) students are entitled to a limited amount of Supplementary Academic Support (SAS).

The University of Sydney's International Sponsorships Unit administers SAS on behalf of its AAS students, ensuring equity, transparency and good use of public money.

SAS can be used by AAS students, by seeking the International Sponsorships' written approval, once all University and Faculty support mechanisms have been exhausted. By submitting this form and requesting access to access the Supplementary Academic Support Entitlement, students acknowledge they have reviewed the Scholarship policy.

AAS students should not incur any expenses prior to the written approval of the International Sponsorships Unit, or they may not be reimbursed.

ACADEMIC STAFF	By providing your signature you recommend and endorse the use of the listed tutor for supplementary academic support and confirm that you have no issue with the student receiving private tutoring. To the best of your knowledge the student has engaged in all free of charge university support mechanisms and should now proceed with requesting Supplementary Academic Support.
IMPORTANT PLEASE NOTE	The above is an abbreviated version of SAS Rules and Guidelines, Australia Awards scholars should consult the current scholarship handbook for current policy guidelines here . International Sponsorships reserves the right to administer SAS on a case-by-case basis, at its own discretion, and in line with the University's contract with DFAT.
