November 2012

Thinking of going for promotion?

Provost and Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Professor Stephen Garton, will chair a Career Development Information Session on Wednesday 21 November for academic staff interested in applying for promotion in the next few years. The information session will assist you in planning a strong application for promotion.

The session will include presentations from the Director, Teaching and Learning, Associate Professor Simon Barrie, and Chair of the Academic Board, Associate Professor Peter McCallum. After each speaker there will be a 10 minute Q & A session.
