

You are here:

TEACHING @ SYDNEY

March 2013

Submit a proposal to present at the 2013 Eportfolio Forum

The 2013 Eportfolio Forum will be held 3 October 2013 in Canberra, organised by ePortfolios Australia, a professional network which aims to support the use of e-portfolios through professional development activities and the sharing of resources, ideas and practice.

An Eportfolio is a collection of student work that displays a student's progress toward, and attainment of, learning outcomes or co-curricular achievements. The University currently uses Pebblepad for ePortfolios.

Proposals for presentations on the theme 'digital identities, footprints, and networks' in a variety of formats are now invited. The closing date is 29 April 2013.

Proposals should relate to one or more of the following themes: Eportfolios supporting learning pathways; Managing online identities through eportfolios; Verifying evidence through eportfolios; and Getting started with eportfolios and/or changing eportfolio platforms.