

You are here:

TEACHING @ SYDNEY

June 2013

Engaging and Supporting First Year Students Through Creative Partnerships

The First Year Experience Working Group will be running its second forum of the semester on Friday 7th June from 3-4.30pm in New Law School Annex Seminar Room 346. In this forum, we will hear presentations from:

- The Library on "The Role of the Faculty Liaison Librarian: Providing Services and Support to Students", and
- Faculty of Health Sciences on "Health Sciences Peer Mentoring: A Student-Staff-Alumni Collaboration".

All are welcome and no RSVP is needed.

To find out more about the First Year Experience Working Group, please contact Adam Bridgeman or see the group's website. Curriculum resources on the transition to learning at university are available here.
